F53[PART IC

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO DIRECTOR AND BANK]

APR.

9.—(1) In this Act the APR shall be the equivalent, on an annual basis, of the present value of all commitments (loans, repayments and charges), future or existing, F54[agreed, in the case of a credit agreement, by the creditor and the consumer and, in the case of a hire-purchase agreement, by the owner and the hirer], calculated to the nearest rounded decimal place in accordance with the method of calculation specified in the Fourth Schedule.

(2) The F55[Bank] may by regulations amend the method of calculation of the APR specified in the Fourth Schedule either generally F56[or in relation to any form of credit covered in this Act or in relation to hire-purchase agreements].

(3) The F55[Bank] shall, from time to time, publish guidelines to explain the method of calculation of the APR under this Act.

Criteria for calculation of APR.

10.—(1) This section shall apply to credit agreements other than housing loans.

(2) For the purpose of calculating the APR the total cost of credit to the consumer shall be determined, with the exception of the following charges:

- (a) charges payable by the consumer for non-compliance with any of his commitments laid down in the credit agreement,
- (b) charges other than the purchase price which, in purchases of goods or services, the consumer is obliged to pay whether the transaction is paid in cash or by credit,
- (c) charges for the transfer of funds and charges for keeping an account intended to receive payments towards the reimbursement of the credit, the payment of interest and other charges except where the consumer does not have reasonable freedom of choice in the matter and where such charges are abnormally high; this paragraph shall not, however, apply to charges for collection of such reimbursements or payments, whether made in cash or otherwise,
- (d) membership subscriptions to associations or groups and arising from agreements separate from the credit agreement, even though such subscriptions have an effect on the credit terms,
- (e) charges for insurance or guarantees other than those designed to ensure payment to the creditor, in the event of the death, invalidity, illness or unemployment of the consumer, of a sum equal to or less than the total amount of the credit together with relevant interest, and other charges imposed by the creditor as a condition for credit being granted.

(3) (a) The APR shall be calculated—

- (i) in the case of a credit agreement, at the time the agreement is concluded,
- or

(ii) in the case of an advertisement which relates to the offering of credit and mentions the APR, at the time the advertisement is published, and

(b) the calculation shall be made on the assumption that the credit agreement is valid for the period agreed and that the creditor and the consumer fulfil their obligations under the terms and by the dates agreed.

(4) In the case of credit agreements containing terms allowing variations in the rate of interest and the amount or level of other charges contained in the APR but unquantifiable at the time when it is calculated, the APR shall be calculated on the assumption that interest and other charges remain fixed and will apply until the end of the credit agreement. The variability shall be indicated with equal prominence to and along with the APR.

(5) In the case of credit agreements containing terms allowing variations in the rate of interest and the amount or level of other charges contained in the APR but quantifiable at the time when it is calculated, the APR shall be calculated to take account of the rates applicable from the specific dates set out in the agreement.

(6) Where necessary, the following assumptions may be made in calculating the APR:

(a) if there is no fixed timetable for repayment, and one cannot be deduced from the terms of the credit agreement and the means for repaying the credit granted, the duration of the credit shall be deemed to be one year,

(b) unless otherwise specified, where the credit agreement provides for more than one repayment date, the credit will be made available and the repayments made at the earliest time provided for in the agreement,

(c) where the amount of credit to be provided is not specified—

(i) in the case of running account credit, where a credit limit is specified, it shall be assumed that the maximum amount of credit is provided for the duration of the agreement, and

(ii) in any other case, it shall be assumed that the amount provided shall be £1,000,

(d) where charges are payable at an unspecified date after the agreement is signed it shall be assumed that they are payable at the beginning of the agreement.

(7) A creditor shall comply with the requirements of this section in relation to the calculation of the APR in respect of a credit agreement.

Laying of regulations before Houses of Oireachtas.

11.—Every regulation made under this Act shall be laid before each House of the Oireachtas as soon as may be after it is made and, if a resolution annulling the regulation is passed by either such House within the next 21 days on which that House has sat after the regulation is laid before it, the regulation shall be annulled accordingly but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder.

- (a) the installation forms part of the agreement and was carried out by the owner or under the owner's responsibility, or
- (b) the installation, intended to be carried out by the hirer, was done by the hirer and the incorrect installation was due to shortcomings in the installation instructions provided to the hirer by the owner or, in the case of goods with digital elements, provided to the hirer by the owner or by the supplier of the digital content or digital service.]

73F.—Sections 73B to 73E shall be implied into every hire-purchase agreement and shall have effect as if they were terms of such an agreement.]

F99[Liability of owner

73G.—(1) Where a hire-purchase agreement for the letting of goods with digital elements provides for a continuous supply of digital content or a digital service for a period specified in the agreement, the owner shall be liable for a lack of conformity of the digital content or digital service with the agreement that occurs or becomes apparent within that period.

(2) Where a hire-purchase agreement provides for the delivery of goods on more than one occasion during the period for which the agreement subsists, the owner shall be liable to the hirer during that period for a lack of conformity of the goods with the hire-purchase agreement which exists at the relevant time.

(3) Where an update is supplied by the owner or a third party supplying the digital content or digital service under a hire-purchase agreement for the letting of goods with digital elements, the owner shall be liable for any lack of conformity of the digital content or digital service with the agreement—

- (b) caused by the failure of the owner to supply an update in accordance with section 73D at the time when the update should have been supplied.

(4) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), where a hire-purchase agreement for the letting of goods other than goods with digital elements provides for a continuous supply of digital content or a digital service for a period specified in the hire-purchase agreement, the hirer's right to a remedy in respect of a lack of conformity with the hire-purchase agreement for which the owner is liable under this section shall apply for the period of 6 years beginning with the relevant time.

(5) Where a hire-purchase agreement for the letting of goods with digital elements provides for a continuous supply of digital content or a digital service for a period specified in the hire-purchase agreement, the hirer's right to a remedy in respect of a lack of conformity with the hire-purchase agreement for which the owner is liable under this section shall apply for the period of 6 years beginning with the time at which the lack of conformity with the hire-purchase agreement occurs or becomes apparent during the period so specified.

(6) In this section, "relevant time" has the same meaning as it has in section 73A.]

F100[Burden of proof

73H.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), where it becomes apparent during the period of 12 months beginning with the relevant time that goods supplied under a hire-purchase agreement are not in conformity with the hire-purchase agreement, the lack of conformity with the agreement shall be presumed to have existed at the relevant time unless—

(a) the contrary is proven, or

(b) such a presumption is incompatible with the nature of the goods or with the nature of the lack of conformity with the agreement.

(2) Where a hire-purchase agreement for the letting of goods with digital elements provides for the continuous supply of the digital content or digital service for a period specified in the agreement, the burden of proof as to whether the digital content or digital service was in conformity with the hire-purchase agreement during that period shall be on the owner for a lack of conformity with the agreement which becomes apparent during that period.

(3) For the purposes of relying on the presumption under subsection (1), the hirer shall be required to prove only that—

(a) the goods are not in conformity with the hire-purchase agreement, and

(b) the lack of conformity became apparent during the period of 12 months beginning with the relevant time.

(b) subject to subsections (2) and (3), the right to have the goods brought into conformity with the agreement through repair or replacement in accordance with section 73K.

(2) The hirer may choose between the remedies of repair and replacement of the goods unless the remedy chosen by the hirer—

(a) would be impossible for the owner to carry out, or

(b) compared to the alternative remedy, would impose disproportionate costs on the owner, taking all the circumstances into account, including—

(i) the value that the goods would have if there were no lack of conformity,

(ii) the significance of the lack of conformity, and

(iii) whether the alternative remedy could be provided without significant inconvenience to the hirer.

(3) The owner may refuse to bring the goods into conformity with the hire-purchase agreement if both repair and replacement—

(a) are impossible for the owner to carry out, or

(b) compared to the alternative remedy, would impose disproportionate costs on the owner, taking all the circumstances into account, including those specified in subsection (2)(b)(i) and (ii).

F102[Short-term
right to terminate hire-purchase agreement

73J.—(1) This section applies where the hirer has the short-term right to terminate the hire-purchase agreement under section 73I(1)(a).

(2) The period during which the hirer has the short-term right to terminate the hire-purchase agreement—

(a) begins—

(i) where the hire-purchase agreement requires the owner to install the goods after their delivery or to take any other action to enable the hirer to use the goods, on the day on which the installation or other action is completed, or

(ii) in any other case, at the relevant time,

and

(b) subject to subsection (3), expires 30 days after that day or, as the case may be, the relevant time.

(3) Where goods are of a kind that can reasonably be expected to expire or deteriorate on the expiry of a smaller number of days than the 30 days referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (2), that paragraph shall apply as if for the reference to 30 days there were substituted a reference to that smaller number of days.

(4) Nothing in subsection (2) prevents a hirer who has the right to terminate a hire-purchase agreement from terminating it before the beginning of the period referred to in that subsection (or that subsection as applied by subsection (3)).

(5) In case of dispute, it shall be for the owner to show that by virtue of subsection (3) the period referred to in subsection (2) is shorter than 30 days.

(6) Where the hirer has the right to terminate a hire-purchase agreement under this section and wishes to exercise that right—

(a) the hirer shall exercise that right in accordance with section 73N, and

(a) free of charge,

(b) within a reasonable time after being informed by the hirer of the lack of conformity with the agreement, and

(c) without significant inconvenience to the hirer, taking into account the nature of the goods and the purpose for which the hirer requires the goods.

(3) The reasonable time for completing the repair or replacement of the goods under subsection (2)(b) shall correspond to the shortest possible time necessary for completing the repair or replacement and shall be objectively determined having regard to the nature and complexity of the goods, the nature and severity of the lack of conformity and the effort needed to complete the repair or replacement.

(4) The hirer shall make the goods that are to be remedied by repair or replacement available to the owner.

(5) The owner shall take back any goods that have been replaced and any goods that are to be repaired at the owner's expense.

(6) Subsection (7) applies where—

- (a) it is necessary to remove goods in order to repair or replace them, and
- (b) the goods were installed in a manner consistent with their nature and purpose before the lack of conformity of the goods with the hire-purchase agreement became apparent.

(7) The owner's obligation to repair or replace the goods under subsection (2) includes—

- (a) the removal of the goods that are not in conformity with the hire-purchase agreement (referred to in this subsection as the "non-conforming goods"),
- (b) where the non-conforming goods are repaired, the installation of those goods,
- (c) where the non-conforming goods are replaced, the installation of the goods that replace the non-conforming goods, and
- (d) bearing the costs of any such removal and installation.

(8) The hirer shall not be liable to pay for the normal use of any goods that are replaced during the period prior to their replacement.

(9) In this section, "free of charge" means free of the necessary costs incurred in order to bring goods into conformity with the hire-purchase agreement, particularly the cost of postage, carriage, labour or materials.]

F104[Right to proportionate reduction in price or final termination of hire-purchase agreement

73L.—(1) This section applies where—

- (a) the hirer has exercised his or her right under section 73I(1)(b) and—

 - (ii) the owner has refused to bring the goods into conformity with the hire-purchase agreement in accordance with section 73I(3),
- (b) the goods are not in conformity with the hire-purchase agreement at the relevant time and the same or a different lack of conformity of the goods with the agreement becomes apparent despite the owner having attempted to bring the goods into conformity with the agreement,
- (c) the goods are not in conformity with the hire-purchase agreement at the relevant time and the lack of conformity of the goods is of such a serious nature as to justify an immediate price reduction or the termination of the hire-purchase agreement, or
- (d) the goods are not in conformity with the hire-purchase agreement at the relevant time and the owner has declared, or it is clear from the circumstances, that the owner will not bring the goods into conformity with the hire-purchase agreement within a reasonable time or without significant inconvenience to the hirer.

(2) Subject to subsections (5) and (7), the hirer shall have—

- (a) the right to a proportionate reduction in the price in accordance with section 73M, or

(b) subject to subsection (3), the right to exercise the final right to terminate the hire-purchase agreement in accordance with section 73N.

(3) The hirer shall not have the right to exercise the final right to terminate the hire-purchase agreement under subsection (2)(b) if the lack of conformity of the goods with the agreement is only minor.

(4) In case of dispute, it shall be for the owner to show that the lack of conformity of the goods with the agreement is minor.

(5) Where subsection (1)(b) applies, it shall be objectively determined, taking all the circumstances into account (including the matters mentioned in subsection (6)), whether the hirer—

(a) shall have the right specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (2), or

(b) shall be required to accept a further attempt or attempts by the owner to bring the goods into conformity with the hire-purchase agreement.

(6) The matters referred to in subsection (5) are—

(a) the type and value of the goods,

(b) the nature and significance of the lack of conformity with the hire-purchase agreement, and

(c) whether the hirer can reasonably be expected to maintain confidence in the ability of the owner to bring the goods into conformity with the hire-purchase agreement, in particular where the same lack of conformity with the agreement appears on more than one occasion.

(7) For the purposes of subsection (1)(c), it shall be objectively determined, having regard to the nature and severity of the lack of conformity with the hire-purchase agreement (including the matters mentioned in subsection (8)), whether the lack of conformity of the goods with the agreement is of such a serious nature as to justify the application of subsection (2).

(8) The matters referred to in subsection (7) are whether the lack of conformity with the hire-purchase agreement is such that—

(a) the hirer cannot maintain confidence in the ability of the owner to bring the goods into conformity,

(b) the ability of the hirer to make normal use of the goods is severely affected and the hirer cannot reasonably be expected to trust that this would be remedied by repair or replacement by the owner.

(9) Where the hirer is entitled to exercise the right conferred by subsection (2)(b) by virtue of some (but not all) of the goods to which the hire-purchase agreement relates not being in conformity with the agreement, the hirer may exercise that right only in relation to—

(a) those goods, and

(b) any other goods that the hirer acquired with the goods that are not in conformity with the agreement, if the hirer cannot reasonably be expected to keep only the goods that are in conformity with the hire-purchase agreement.

(10) In this section, "relevant time" has the same meaning as it has in section 73A.]

- (a) to require the owner to reduce in accordance with subsection (3) the price the hirer is required to pay under the hire-purchase agreement, or
- (b) to receive from the owner a reimbursement of the price paid by the hirer in excess of the amount of the reduction applicable under subsection (3).

(3) The reduction of the price shall be proportionate to the decrease in the value of the goods received by the hirer compared with the value that the goods would have if they were in conformity with the hire-purchase agreement.

(4) Where the hirer has the right to reimbursement under subsection (2)(b), the owner shall reimburse the hirer in accordance with section 73P.

(5) In a hire-purchase agreement where the hirer transfers the ownership of goods to the owner in full or part payment of the price, the right of the hirer to a price reduction shall not apply if—

- (a) no agreed monetary value was ascribed by the parties to the goods to be transferred by the hirer at the time the hire-purchase agreement was concluded, or
- (b) the goods which the hirer has transferred, or is required to transfer, under the hire-purchase agreement cannot be divided up so as to enable the owner to receive or retain only the reduced price.]

F106[Obligations of hirer in event of termination of hire-purchase agreement

73N.—(1) Where the hirer exercises the right to terminate a hire-purchase agreement under section 73B(3), the short-term right to terminate a hire-purchase agreement under section 73I(1)(a) or the final right to terminate a hire-purchase agreement under section 73L(2)(b), the hirer shall—

- (a) the price paid for the goods, and
- (b) any costs incurred by the hirer in returning the goods to the owner.

(3) If the hirer terminates a hire-purchase agreement before the price payable for the goods under the agreement has been paid in full, the reimbursement to which the hirer is entitled under subsection (2) applies only to the part of the price which has been paid by the hirer.

(4) Where the hirer exercises the final right to terminate the hire-purchase agreement under section 73L(2)(b), the reimbursement of the price to which the hirer is entitled under subsection (2) may be reduced in proportion to any depreciation in the value of the goods in excess of the depreciation that could reasonably be expected to result from their normal use.

(5) In case of dispute as to the application of subsection (4), it shall be for the owner to show that the depreciation in the value of the goods exceeded that which could reasonably be expected to result from their normal use.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), in a hire-purchase agreement where the hirer transfers the ownership of goods to the owner in full or part payment of the price, the owner shall—

(a) return those goods to the hirer, and

(b) reimburse the hirer in accordance with section 73P for any part of the price paid by the hirer.

(7) If the owner cannot return goods to the hirer in accordance with subsection (6), the owner shall reimburse the hirer—

(a) the goods back, or

(b) if the owner so chooses, evidence provided by the hirer of having returned the goods.

(3) The owner shall reimburse the hirer using the same means of payment as the hirer used to pay for the goods unless—

(a) the hirer expressly agrees otherwise, and

(b) the hirer does not incur any fees as a result of reimbursement by the means otherwise agreed.

(4) The owner shall reimburse the hirer without the imposition of any fee on the hirer in respect of the reimbursement.

Section 2.

FIRST SCHEDULE

COUNCIL DIRECTIVE 87/102/EEC AND COUNCIL DIRECTIVE 90/88/EEC

PART I

COUNCIL DIRECTIVE

of 22 December 1986

for the approximation of the laws, regulations and administrative provisions of the Member States concerning consumer credit

(87/102/EEC)

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community, and in particular Article 100 thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission⁽¹⁾,

Having regard to the opinion of the European Parliament⁽²⁾,

Having regard to the opinion of the Economic and Social Committee⁽³⁾,

Whereas wide differences exist in the laws of the Member States in the field of consumer credit;

Whereas these differences of law can lead to distortions of competition between grantors of credit in the common market;

Whereas these differences limit the opportunities the consumer has to obtain credit in other Member States; whereas they affect the volume and the nature of the credit sought, and also the purchase of goods and services;

Whereas, as a result, these differences have an influence on the free movement of goods and services obtainable by consumers on credit and thus directly affect the functioning of the common market;

Whereas, given the increasing volume of credit granted in the Community to consumers, the establishment of a common market in consumer credit would benefit alike consumers, grantors of credit, manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers of goods and providers of services;

Whereas the programmes of the European Economic Community for a consumer protection and information policy⁽⁴⁾ provide, inter alia, that the consumer should be protected against unfair credit terms and that a harmonization of the general conditions governing consumer credit should be undertaken as a priority;

Whereas differences of law and practice result in unequal consumer protection in the field of consumer credit from one Member State to another;

⁽²⁾ OJ No C 242, 12.9.1983, p. 10.

⁽³⁾ OJ No C 113, 7.5.1980, p. 22.

⁽⁴⁾ OJ No C 92, 25.4.1975, p. 1 and OJ No C 133, 3.6.1981, p. 1.

Whereas there has been much change in recent years in the types of credit available to and used by consumers; whereas new forms of consumer credit have emerged and continue to develop;

Whereas the consumer should receive adequate information on the conditions and cost of credit and on his obligations; whereas this information should include, inter alia, the annual percentage rate of charge for credit, or, failing that, the total amount that the consumer must pay for credit; whereas, pending a decision on a Community method or methods of calculating the annual percentage rate of charge, Member States should be able to retain existing methods or practices for calculating this rate, or failing that, should establish provisions for indicating the total cost of the credit to the consumer;

Whereas the terms of credit may be disadvantageous to the consumer; whereas better protection of consumers can be achieved by adopting certain requirements which are to apply to all forms of credit;

Whereas, having regard to the character of certain credit agreements or types of transaction, these agreements or transactions should be partially or entirely excluded from the field of application of this Directive;

Whereas it should be possible for Member States, in consultation with the Commission, to exempt from the Directive certain forms of credit of a non-commercial character granted under particular conditions;

Whereas the practices existing in some Member States in respect of authentic acts drawn up before a notary or judge are such as to render the application of certain provisions of this Directive unnecessary in the case of such acts; whereas it should therefore be possible for Member States to exempt such acts from those provisions;

Whereas credit agreements for very large financial amounts tend to differ from the usual consumer credit agreements; whereas the application of the provisions of this Directive to agreements for very small amounts could create unnecessary administrative burdens both for consumers and grantors of credit; whereas therefore, agreements above or below specified financial limits should be excluded from the Directive;

Whereas the provision of information on the cost of credit in advertising and at the business premises of the creditor or credit broker can make it easier for the consumer to compare different offers;

Whereas consumer protection is further improved if credit agreements are made in writing and contain certain minimum particulars concerning the contractual terms;

Whereas, in the case of credit granted for the acquisition of goods, Member States should lay down the conditions in which goods may be repossessed, particularly if the consumer has not given his consent; whereas the account between the parties should upon repossession be made up in such manner as to ensure that the repossession does not entail any unjustified enrichment;

Whereas the consumer should be allowed to discharge his obligations before the due date; whereas the consumer should then be entitled to an equitable reduction in the total cost of the credit;

Whereas the assignment of the creditor's rights arising under a credit agreement should not be allowed to weaken the position of the consumer;

Whereas those Member States which permit consumers to use bills of exchange, promissory notes or cheques in connection with credit agreements should ensure that the consumer is suitably protected when so using such instruments;

Whereas, as regards goods or services which the consumer has contracted to acquire on credit, the consumer should, at least in the circumstances defined below, have rights vis-à-vis the grantor of credit which are in addition to his normal contractual rights against him and against the supplier of the goods or services; whereas the circumstances referred to above are those where grantor of credit and the supplier of goods or services have a pre-existing agreement whereunder credit is made available exclusively by that grantor of credit to customers of that supplier for the purpose of enabling the consumer to acquire goods or services from the latter;

Whereas the ECU is as defined in Council Regulation (EEC) No 3180/78(1), as last amended by Regulation (EEC) No 2626/84(2); whereas Member States should to a limited extent be at liberty to round off the amounts in national currency resulting from the conversion of amounts of this Directive expressed in ECU; whereas the amounts in this Directive should be periodically re-examined in the light of economic and monetary trends in the Community, and, if need be, revised;

Whereas suitable measures should be adopted by Member States for authorising persons offering credit or offering to arrange credit agreements or for inspecting or monitoring the activities of persons granting credit or arranging for credit to be granted or for enabling consumers to complain about credit agreements or credit conditions;

Whereas credit agreements should not derogate, to the detriment of the consumer, from the provisions adopted in implementation of this Directive or corresponding to its provisions; whereas those provisions should not be circumvented as a result of the way in which agreements are formulated;

Whereas, since this Directive provides for a certain degree of approximation of the laws, regulations and administrative provisions of the Member States concerning consumer credit and for a certain level of consumer protection, Member States should not be prevented from retaining or adopting more stringent measures to protect the consumer, with due regard for their obligations under the Treaty;

Whereas, not later than 1 January 1995, the Commission should present to the Council a report concerning the operation of this Directive,

HAS ADOPTED THIS DIRECTIVE:

Article 1

1. This Directive applies to credit agreements.
2. For the purpose of this Directive:
 - (a) 'consumer' means a natural person who, in transactions covered by this Directive, is acting for purposes which can be regarded as outside his trade or profession;
 - (b) 'creditor' means a natural or legal person who grants credit in the course of his trade, business or profession, or a group of such persons;
 - (c) 'credit agreement' means an agreement whereby a creditor grants or promises to grant to a consumer a credit in the form of a deferred payment, a loan or other similar financial accommodation.

Agreements for the provision on a continuing basis of a service or a utility, where the consumer has the right to pay for them, for the duration of their provision, by means of instalments, are not deemed to be credit agreements for the purpose of this Directive;

- (d) 'total cost of the credit to the consumer' means all the costs of the credit including interest and other charges directly connected with the credit agreement, determined in accordance with the provisions or practices existing in, or to be established by, the Member States.
- (e) 'annual percentage rate of charge' means the total cost of the credit to the consumer expressed as an annual percentage of the amount of the credit granted and calculated according to existing methods of the Member States.

Article 2

1. This Directive shall not apply to:

- (a) credit agreements or agreements promising to grant credit:
 - intended primarily for the purpose of acquiring or retaining property rights in land or in an existing or projected building,
 - intended for the purpose of renovating or improving a building as such;
- (b) hiring agreements except where these provide that the title will pass ultimately to the hirer;
- (c) credit granted or made available without payment of interest or any other charge;
- (d) credit agreements under which no interest is charged provided the consumer agrees to repay the credit in a single payment;
- (e) credit in the form of advances on a current account granted by a credit institution or financial institution other than on credit card accounts.

Nevertheless, the provisions of Article 6 shall apply to such credits;

- (f) credit agreements involving amounts less than 200 ECU or more than 20 000 ECU;
- (g) credit agreements under which the consumer is required to repay the credit:
 - either, within a period not exceeding three months,
 - or, by a maximum number of four payments within a period not exceeding 12 months.

2. A Member State may, in consultation with the Commission, exempt from the application of this Directive certain types of credit which fulfil the following conditions:

- they are granted at rates of charge below those prevailing in the market, and
- they are not offered to the public generally.

3. The provisions of Article 4 and of Articles 6 to 12 shall not apply to credit agreements or agreements promising to grant credit, secured by mortgage on immovable property, in so far as these are not already excluded from the Directive under paragraph 1 (a) of this Article.

4. Member States may exempt from the provisions of Articles 6 to 12 credit agreements in the form of an authentic act signed before a notary or judge.

Article 3

Without prejudice to Council Directive 84/450/EEC of 10 September 1984 relating to the approximation of the laws, regulations and administrative provisions of the Member States concerning misleading advertising⁽¹⁾, and to the rules and principles applicable to unfair advertising, any advertisement, or any offer which is displayed at business premises, in which a person offers credit or offers to arrange a credit agreement and in which a rate of interest or any figures relating to the cost of the credit are indicated, shall also include a statement of the annual percentage rate of charge, by means of a representative example if no other means is practicable.

Article 4

1. Credit agreements shall be made in writing. The consumer shall receive a copy of the written agreement.

2. The written agreement shall include:

(a) a statement of the annual percentage rate of charge;

(b) a statement of the conditions under which the annual percentage rate of charge may be amended.

In cases where it is not possible to state the annual percentage rate of charge, the consumer shall be provided with adequate information in the written agreement. This information shall at least include the information provided for in the second indent of Article 6 (1).

3. The written agreement shall further include the other essential terms of the contract.

By way of illustration, the Annex to this Directive contains a list of terms which Member States may require to be included in the written agreement as being essential.

Article 5

By way of derogation from Articles 3 and 4 (2), and pending a decision on the introduction of a Community method or methods of calculating the annual percentage rate of charge, those Member States which, at the time of notification of this Directive, do not require the annual percentage rate of charge to be shown or which do not have an established method for its calculation, shall at least require the total cost of the credit to the consumer to be indicated.

Article 6

1. Notwithstanding the exclusion provided for in Article 2 (1) (e), where there is an agreement between a credit institution or financial institution and a consumer for the granting of credit in the form of an advance on a current account, other than on credit card accounts, the consumer shall be informed at the time or before the agreement is concluded:

—of the credit limit, if any,

—of the annual rate of interest and the charges applicable from the time the agreement is concluded and the conditions under which these may be amended,

—of the procedure for terminating the agreement.

This information shall be confirmed in writing.

2. Furthermore, during the period of the agreement, the consumer shall be informed of any change in the annual rate of interest or in the relevant charges at the time it occurs. Such information may be given in a statement of account or in any other manner acceptable to Member States.

3. In Member States where tacitly accepted overdrafts are permissible, the Member States concerned shall ensure that the consumer is informed of the annual rate of interest and the charges applicable, and of any amendment thereof, where the overdraft extends beyond a period of three months.

Article 7

In the case of credit granted for the acquisition of goods, Member States shall lay down the conditions under which goods may be repossessed, in particular if the consumer has not given his consent. They shall further ensure that where the creditor recovers possession of the goods the account between the parties shall be made up so as to ensure that the repossession does not entail any unjustified enrichment.

Article 8

The consumer shall be entitled to discharge his obligations under a credit agreement before the time fixed by the agreement. In this event, in accordance with the rules laid down by the Member States, the consumer shall be entitled to an equitable reduction in the total cost of the credit.

Article 9

Where the creditor's rights under a credit agreement are assigned to a third person, the consumer shall be entitled to plead against that third person any defence which was available to him against the original creditor, including set-off where the latter is permitted in the Member State concerned.

Article 10

The Member States which, in connection with credit agreements, permit the consumer:

- (a) to make payment by means of bills of exchange including promissory notes;
- (b) to give security by means of bills of exchange including promissory notes and cheques, shall ensure that the consumer is suitably protected when using these instruments in those ways.

Article 11

1. Member States shall ensure that the existence of a credit agreement shall not in any way affect the rights of the consumer against the supplier of goods or services purchased by means of such an agreement in cases where the goods or services are not supplied or are otherwise not in conformity with the contract for their supply.

2. Where:

- (a) in order to buy goods or obtain services the consumer enters into a credit agreement with a person other than the supplier of them;

and

- (b) the grantor of the credit and the supplier of the goods or services have a pre-existing agreement whereunder credit is made available exclusively by that grantor of credit to customers of that supplier for the acquisition of goods or services from that supplier; and
- (c) the consumer referred to in subparagraph (a) obtains his credit pursuant to that pre-existing agreement; and
- (d) the goods or services covered by the credit agreement are not supplied, or are supplied only in part, or are not in conformity with the contract for supply of them; and
- (e) the consumer has pursued his remedies against the supplier but has failed to obtain the satisfaction to which he is entitled, the consumer shall have the right to pursue remedies against the grantor of credit. Member States shall determine to what extent and under what conditions these remedies shall be exercisable.

3. Paragraph 2 shall not apply where the individual transaction in question is for an amount less than the equivalent of 200 ECU.

Article 12

1. Member States shall:

- (a) ensure that persons offering credit or offering to arrange credit agreements shall obtain official authorization to do so, either specifically or as suppliers of goods and services; or
- (b) ensure that persons granting credit or arranging for credit to be granted shall be subject to inspection or monitoring of their activities by an institution or official body; or
- (c) promote the establishment of appropriate bodies to receive complaints concerning credit agreements or credit conditions and to provide relevant information or advice to consumers regarding them.

2. Member States may provide that the authorization referred to in paragraph 1 (a) shall not be required where persons offering to conclude or arrange credit agreements satisfy the definition in Article 1 of the first Council Directive of 12 December 1977 on the co-ordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions⁽¹⁾ and are authorized in accordance with the provisions of that Directive.

Where persons granting credit or arranging for credit to be granted have been authorized both specifically, under the provisions of paragraph 1 (a) and also under the provisions of the aforementioned Directive, but the latter authorization is subsequently withdrawn, the competent authority responsible for issuing the specific authorization to grant credit under paragraph 1 (a) shall be informed and shall decide whether the person concerned may continue to grant credit, or arrange for credit to be granted, or whether the specific authorization granted under paragraph 1 (a) should be withdrawn.

Article 13

1. For the purposes of this Directive, the ECU shall be that defined by Regulation (EEC) No 3180/78, as amended by Regulation (EEC) No 2626/84. The equivalent in national currency shall initially be calculated at the rate obtaining on the date of adoption of this Directive.

Member States may round off the amounts in national currency resulting from the conversion of the amounts in ECU provided such rounding off does not exceed 10 ECU.

2. Every five years, and for the first time in 1995, the Council, acting on a proposal from the Commission, shall examine and, if need be, revise the amounts in this Directive in the light of economic and monetary trends in the Community.

Article 14

1. Member States shall ensure that credit agreements shall not derogate, to the detriment of the consumer, from the provisions of national law implementing or corresponding to this Directive.

2. Member States shall further ensure that the provisions which they adopt in implementation of this directive are not circumvented as a result of the way in which agreements are formulated, in particular by the device of distributing the amount of credit over several agreements.

Article 15

This Directive shall not preclude Member States from retaining or adopting more stringent provisions to protect consumers consistent with their obligations under the Treaty.

Article 16

1. Member States shall bring into force the measures necessary to comply with this Directive not later than 1 January 1990 and shall forthwith inform the Commission thereof.

2. Member States shall communicate to the Commission the texts of the main provisions of national law which they adopt in the field covered by this Directive.

Article 17

Not later than 1 January 1995 the Commission shall present a report to the Council concerning the operation of this Directive.

Article 18

This Directive is addressed to the Member States.

PART II

COUNCIL DIRECTIVE

of 22 February 1990

amending Directive 87/102/EEC for the approximation of the laws, regulations and administrative provisions of the Member States concerning consumer credit

(90/88/EEC)

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community, and in particular Article 100a thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission⁽¹⁾,

In cooperation with the European Parliament⁽²⁾,

Having regard to the opinion of the Economic and Social Committee⁽³⁾,

Whereas Article 5 of Council Directive 87/102/EEC⁽⁴⁾ provides for the introduction of a Community method or methods of calculating the annual percentage rate of charge for consumer credit;

Whereas it is desirable, in order to promote the establishment and functioning of the internal market and to ensure that consumers benefit from a high level of protection, that one method of calculating the said annual percentage rate of charge should be used throughout the Community;

Whereas it is desirable, with a view to introducing such a method and in accordance with the definition of the total cost of credit to the consumer, to draw up a single mathematical formula for calculating the annual percentage rate of charge and for determining credit cost items to be used in the calculation by indicating those costs which must not be taken into account;

Whereas, during a transitional period, Member States which prior to the date of notification of this Directive, apply laws which permit the use of another mathematical formula for calculating the annual percentage rate of charge may continue to apply such laws;

Whereas, before expiry of the transitional period and in the light of experience, the Council will, on the basis of a proposal from the Commission, take a decision which will make it possible to apply a single Community mathematical formula;

Whereas it is desirable, whenever necessary, to adopt certain hypotheses for calculating the annual percentage rate of charge;

Whereas by virtue of the special nature of loans guaranteed by a mortgage secured on immovable property it is desirable that such credit should continue to be partially excluded from this Directive;

Whereas the information which must be communicated to the consumer in the written contract should be amplified,

HAS ADOPTED THIS DIRECTIVE:

Article 1

Directive 87/102/EEC is hereby amended as follows:

1. In Article 1 (2), points (d) and (e) shall be replaced by the following:

‘(d) “total cost of the credit to the consumer” means all the costs, including interest and other charges, which the consumer has to pay for the credit.’;

⁽²⁾ OJ No C 96, 17.4.1989, p. 87 and OJ No C 291, 20.11.1989, p. 50.

⁽⁴⁾ OJ No L 42, 12.2.1987, p. 48.

‘(e) “annual percentage rate of charge” means the total cost of the credit to the consumer, expressed as an annual percentage of the amount of the credit granted and calculated in accordance with Article 1a’.

2. The following Article shall be inserted:

‘Article 1a

1. (a) The annual percentage rate of charge, which shall be that equivalent, on an annual basis, to the present value of all commitments (loans, repayments and charges), future or existing, agreed by the creditor and the borrower, shall be calculated in accordance with the mathematical formula set out in Annex II.

(b) Four examples of the method of calculation are given in Annex III, by way of illustration.

2. For the purpose of calculating the annual percentage rate of charge, the “total cost of the credit to the consumer” as defined in Article 1 (2) (d) shall be determined, with the exception of the following charges:

(i) charges payable by the borrower for non-compliance with any of his commitments laid down in the credit agreement;

(ii) charges other than the purchase price which, in purchases of goods or services, the consumer is obliged to pay whether the transactions is paid in cash or by credit;

(iii) charges for the transfer of funds and charges for keeping an account intended to receive payments towards the reimbursement of the credit the payment of interest and other charges except where the consumer doesn't have reasonable freedom of choice in the matter and where such charges are abnormally high; this provision shall not, however, apply to charges for collection of such reimbursements or payments, whether made in cash or otherwise;

(iv) membership subscriptions to associations or groups and arising from agreements separate from the credit agreement, even though such subscriptions have an effect on the credit terms;

(v) charges for insurance or guarantees; included are, however, those designed to ensure payment to the creditor, in the event of the death, invalidity, illness or unemployment of the consumer, of a sum equal to or less than the total amount of the credit together with relevant interest and other charges which have to be imposed by the creditor as a condition for credit being granted.

3. (a) Where credit transactions referred to in this Directive are subject to the provisions of national laws in force on 1 March 1990 which impose maximum limits on the annual percentage rate of charge for such transactions and, where such provisions permit standard costs other than those described in paragraph 2 (i) to (v) not to be included in those maximum limits, Member States may, solely in respect of such transactions, not include the aforementioned costs when calculating the annual percentage rate of charge, as stipulated in this Directive, provided that there is a requirement in the cases mentioned in Article 3 and in the credit agreement, that the consumer be informed of the amount and inclusion thereof in the payments to be made.

(b) Member States may no longer apply point (a) from the date of entry into force of the single mathematical formula for calculating the annual percentage rate of charge in the Community, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 5 (c).

4. (a) The annual percentage rate of charge shall be calculated at the time the credit contract is concluded, without prejudice to the provisions of Article 3 concerning advertisements and special offers.
- (b) The calculation shall be made on the assumption that the credit contract is valid for the period agreed and that the creditor and the consumer fulfil their obligations under the terms and by the dates agreed.
5. (a) As a transitional measure, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1 (a), Member States which, prior to 1 March 1990, applied legal provisions whereby a mathematical formula different from that given in Annex II could be used for calculating the annual percentage rate of charge, may continue applying that formula within their territory for a period of three years starting from 1 January 1993.

Member States shall take the appropriate measures to ensure that only one mathematical formula for calculating the annual percentage rate of charge is used within their territory.

- (b) Six months before the expiry of the time limit laid down in point (a) the Commission shall submit to the Council a report, accompanied by a proposal, which will make it possible in the light of experience, to apply a single Community mathematical formula for calculating the annual percentage rate of charge.
- (c) The Council shall, acting by a qualified majority on the basis of the proposal from the Commission, take a decision before 1 January 1996.
6. In the case of credit contracts containing clauses allowing variations in the rate of interest and the amount or level of other charges contained in the annual percentage rate of charge but unquantifiable at the time when it is calculated, the annual percentage rate of charge shall be calculated on the assumption that interest and other charges remain fixed and will apply until the end of the credit contract.
7. Where necessary, the following assumptions may be made in calculating the annual percentage rate of charge:

- if the contract does not specify a credit limit, the amount of credit granted shall be equal to the amount fixed by the relevant Member State, without exceeding a figure equivalent to ECU 2 000;
- if there is no fixed timetable for repayment, and one cannot be deduced from the terms of the agreement and the means for repaying the credit granted, the duration of the credit shall be deemed to be one year;
- unless otherwise specified, where the contract provides for more than one repayment date, the credit will be made available and the repayments made at the earliest time provided for in the agreement’.

3. Article 2 (3) shall be replaced by the following:

‘3. The provisions of Article 1a and of Articles 4 to 12 shall not apply to credit agreements or agreements promising to grant credit, secured by mortgage on immovable property, insofar as these are not already excluded from the Directive under paragraph 1 (a).’

4. The following subparagraph shall be added to Article 4 (2):

‘(c) a statement of the amount, number and frequency or dates of the payments which the consumer must make to repay the credit, as well as of the payments for interest and other charges; the total amount of these payments should also be indicated where possible;

(d) a statement of the cost items referred to in Article 1a (2) with the exception of expenditure related to the breach of contractual obligations which were not included in the calculation of the annual percentage rate of charge but which have to be paid by the consumer in given circumstances, together with a statement indentifying such circumstances. Where the exact amount of those items is known, that sum is to be indicated; if that is not the case, either a method of calculation or as accurate an estimate as possible is to be provided where possible'.

5. Article 5 shall be deleted.

6. The Annex shall become Annex I and the following point shall be added to paragraph 1:

'(ix) the obligation on the consumer to save a certain amount of money which must be placed in a special account'.

7. Annexes II and III attached hereto shall be added.

Article 2

1. Member States shall take the measures necessary to comply with this Directive not later than 31 December 1992 and shall forthwith inform the Commission thereof.

2. Member States shall communicate to the Commission the texts of the main provisions of national law which they adopt in the field governed by this Directive.

ANNEX

'Annex II

THE BASIC EQUATION EXPRESSING THE EQUIVALENCE OF LOANS ON THE ONE HAND, AND REPAYMENTS AND CHARGES ON THE OTHER:

Meaning of letters and symbols:

$$\sum_{K=1}^{K=m} \frac{{}^A K}{(1+i)^K} = \sum_{K'=1}^{K'=m'} \frac{{}^{A'} K'}{(1+i)^{K'}}$$

K is the number of a loan

K' is the number of a repayment or a payment of charges

${}^A K$ is the amount of loan number K

$A'K'$	is the amount of repayment number K'
$\sum$	represents a sum
m	is the number of the last loan
m'	is the number of the last repayment or payment of charges
t_K	is the interval, expressed in years and fractions of a year, between the date of loan No. 1 and those of subsequent loans Nos. 2 to m
i	is the percentage rate that can be calculated (either by algebra, by successive approximations, or by a computer programme) where the other terms in the equation are known from the contract or otherwise.

Remarks

- (a) The amounts paid by both parties at different times shall not necessarily be equal and shall not necessarily be paid at equal intervals.
- (b) The starting date shall be that of the first loan.
- (c) Intervals between dates used in the calculations shall be expressed in years or in fractions of a year.

ANNEX III

EXAMPLES OF CALCULATIONS

First example

Sum loaned $S = \text{ECU } 1\,000$.

It is repaid in a single payment of ECU 1 200 made 18 months, i.e. 1,5 years, after the date of the loan.

$$\begin{aligned}
 \text{The equation becomes} \quad & \frac{1200}{(1+i)^{1,5}} \\
 1000 = & \frac{1200}{(1+i)^{1,5}} \\
 \text{or } (1+i)^{1,5} & = 1,2 \\
 1+i & = 1,129243 \\
 i & = 0,129243
 \end{aligned}$$

This amount will be rounded down to 12,9% or 12,92% depending on whether the State or habitual practice allows the percentage to be rounded off to the first or second decimal.

Second example

The sum agreed is $S = \text{ECU } 1\,000$ but the creditor retains ECU 50 for enquiry and administrative expenses, so that the loan is in fact ECU 950; the repayment of ECU 1 200, as in the first example, is made 18 months after the date of the loan.

The equation becomes $950 = \frac{1200}{(1+i)^{1,5}}$

$$\begin{aligned} \text{or } (1+i)^{1,5} &= \frac{1200}{950} = 1,263157 \\ 1+i &= 1,16851 \dots \\ i &= 1,16851 \dots \text{ rounded off to } 16,9\% \text{ or } 16,85\%. \end{aligned}$$

Third example

The sum lent is ECU 1 000, repayable in two amounts each of ECU 600, paid after one and two years respectively.

$$\text{The equation becomes } \frac{1000}{1000} = \frac{600}{(1+i)} + \frac{600}{(1+i)^2}$$ it is solved by algebra and produces $i = 0,1306623$, rounded off to 13,1% or 13,07%.

Fourth example

The sum lent is ECU 1 000 and the amounts to be paid by the borrower are:

After three months	(0,25 years)	ECU 272
After six months	(0,50 years)	ECU 272
After twelve months (1 year)	(1 year)	ECU 544

Total		ECU 1 088

The equation becomes:

$$1000 = \frac{272}{(1+i)^{0,25}} + \frac{272}{(1+i)^{0,50}} + \frac{544}{(1+i)}$$

This equation allows i to be calculated by successive approximations, which can be programmed on a pocket computer.

The result is:

$i = 0,1321$ rounded off 13,2 or 13,21%.

DIRECTIVE 98/7/EC OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL of 16 February 1998

amending Directive 87/102/EEC for the approximation of the laws, regulations and administrative provisions of the Member States concerning consumer credit

THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Community, and in particular Article 100a thereof,

Having regard to the proposal of the Commission⁽¹⁾.

Having regard to the opinion of the Economic and Social Committee⁽²⁾,

Acting in accordance with the procedure laid down in Article 189b of the Treaty⁽³⁾

Whereas it is desirable, in order to promote the establishment and functioning of the internal market and to ensure that consumers benefit from a high level of protection, that a single method of calculating the annual percentage rate of charge for consumer credit should be used throughout the Community;

Whereas Article 5 of Directive 87/102/EEC⁽⁴⁾ provides for the introduction of a Community method or methods of calculating the annual percentage rate of charge; Whereas, in order to introduce this single method, it is desirable to draw up a single mathematical formula for calculating the annual percentage rate of charge and for determining the credit cost items to be used in the calculation by indicating those costs which must not be taken into account;

Whereas Annex II of Directive 87/102/EEC introduced a mathematical formula for the calculation of the annual percentage rate of charge and Article 1a(2) of that Directive provided for the charges to be excluded from the calculation of the 'total cost of credit to the consumer'.

Whereas during a transitional period of three years from January 1993, Member States which prior to 1 March 1990 applied laws which permitted the use of another mathematical formula for calculating the annual percentage rate of charge, were permitted to continue to apply such laws;

Whereas the Commission has submitted a Report to the Council which makes it possible, in the light of experience, to apply a single Community mathematical formula for calculating the annual percentage rate of charge;

Whereas, since no Member State has made use of Article 1a(3) of Directive 87/102/EEC by which certain costs were excluded from the calculation of the annual percentage rate of charge in certain Member States, it has become obsolete;

Whereas accuracy to at least one decimal place is necessary;

Whereas a year is presumed to have 365 or 365,25 days or (for leap years) 366 days, 52 weeks or 12 equal months; whereas an equal month is presumed to have 30,41666 days;

Whereas it is desirable that consumers should be able to recognize the terms used different Member States to indicate the "annual percentage rate of charge";

Whereas it is appropriate to study without delay to what extent a further degree of harmonization of the cost elements of consumer credit is necessary in order to put the European consumer in a position to make a better comparison between the actual percentage rates of charges offered by institutions in the various Member State, thereby ensuring harmonious functioning of the internal market,

THE BASIC EQUATION EXPRESSING THE EQUIVALENCE OF LOANS ON THE ONE HAND AND REPAYMENTS AND CHARGES ON THE OTHER

$$\sum_{K=1}^{K=m} \frac{A_K}{(1+i)^{tk'_K}} = \sum_{K'=1}^{K'=m'} \frac{A'_{K'}}{(1+i)^{tk'_{K'}}}$$

Meaning of letters and symbols:

K is the number of a loan

K' is the number of a repayment or a payment of charges

A_K is the amount of loan number K

$A'_{K'}$ is the amount of repayment number K'

Σ represents a sum

m is the number of the last loan

m' is the number of the last repayment or payment of charges

tk'_K is the interval, expressed in years and fractions of a year, between the date of loan No. 1 and those of subsequent loans Nos 2 to m

$tk'_{K'}$ is the interval, expressed in years and fractions of a year, between the date of loan No. 1 and those of repayments or payments of charges Nos 1 to m' i is the percentage rate that can be calculated (either by algebra, by successive approximations, or by a computer programme) where the other terms in the equation are known from the contract or otherwise.

Remarks:

(a) The amounts paid by both parties at different times shall not necessarily be equal and shall not necessarily be paid at equal intervals.

(b) The starting date shall be that of the first loan.

(c) Intervals between dates used in the calculations shall be expressed in years or in fractions of a year. A year is presumed to have 365 days or 365,25 days or (for leap years) 366 days, 52 weeks or 12 equal months. An equal month is presumed to have 30,41666 days (i.e. 365/12).

(d) The result of the calculation shall be expressed with an accuracy of at least one decimal place. When rounding to a particular decimal place the following rule shall apply:

If the figure at the decimal place following this particular decimal place is greater than or equal to 5, the figure at this particular decimal place shall be increased by one.

(e) Member States shall provide that the methods of resolution applicable give a result equal to that of the examples presented in Annex III.'

ANNEX II

‘ANNEX III

EXAMPLES OF CALCULATION

A. CALCULATION OF THE ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE OF CHARGE ON A CALENDAR BASIS (1 YEAR = 365 DAYS (OR 366 DAYS FOR LEAP YEARS))

First example

Sum loaned: S = ECU 1000 on 1 January 1994.

It is repaid in a single payment of ECU 1200 made on 1 July 1995 i.e. 1 1/2 years or 546 (= 365 + 181) days after the date of the loan,

$$\text{The equation becomes: } 1,000 = \frac{1200}{(1+i)^{546/365}}$$

or:

$$(1+i)^{546/365} = 1,2$$

$$1+i = 1,1296204$$

$$i = 0,1296204$$

This amount will be rounded to 13% (or 12,96% if an accuracy of two decimal places is preferred).

Second example

The sum loaned is S = ECU 1,000, but the creditor retains ECU 50 for administrative expenses, so that the loan is in fact ECU 950; the repayment of ECU 1,200, as in the first example, is again made on 1 July 1995.

$$\text{The equation becomes: } 950 = \frac{1200}{(1+i)^{546/365}}$$

or:

$$(1+i)^{546/365} = 1,263157$$

$$1+i = 1,169026$$

$$i = 0,169026$$

This amount will be rounded to 16,9%.

Third example

The sum loaned is ECU 1,000, on 1 January 1994, repayable in two amounts, each ECU 600, paid after one and two years respectively.

The equation becomes:

$$1000 = \frac{600}{(1+i)} + \frac{600}{(1+i)^{730/365}} = \frac{600}{(1+i)} + \frac{600}{(1+i)^2}$$

It is solved by algebra and produces $i=0,1306623$ rounded to 13,1% (or 13,07% if an accuracy of two decimal places is preferred).

Fourth example

The sum loaned is $S = \text{ECU } 1,000$, on 1 January 1994, and the amounts to be paid by the borrower are:

After 3 months (0.25 years/90 days):	ECU 272
After 6 months (0.5 years/181 days):	ECU 272
After 12 months (1 year/365 days):	ECU 544
Total:	ECU 1,088

The equation becomes:

$$= \frac{1000}{(1+i)^{90/365}} + \frac{272}{(1+i)^{181/365}} + \frac{544}{(1+i)^{365/365}}$$

This equation allows i to be calculated by successive approximations, which can be programmed on a pocket calculation.

The result is $i=0,13226$ rounded to 13.2% (or 13,23% if an accuracy of two decimal places is preferred).

B. CALCULATION OF THE ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE OF CHARGE ON THE BASIS OF A STANDARD YEAR (1 YEAR = 365 DAYS OR 365,25 DAYS, 52 WEEKS, OR 12 EQUAL MONTHS)

First example

Sum loaned: $S = \text{ECU } 1,000$

It is repaid in a single payment of ECU 1,200 made in 1.5 years (i.e. $1,5 \times 365 = 547,5$ days, $1,5 \times 365,25 = 547,875$ days, $1,5 \times 366 = 549$ days, $1,5 \times 12 = 18$ months, or $1,5 \times 52 = 78$ weeks) after the date of the loan.

The equation becomes:

$$1000 = \frac{1,200}{(1+i)^{547,5/365}} = \frac{1,200}{(1+i)^{547,875/365}} = \frac{1,200}{(1+i)^{18/12}} = \frac{1,200}{(1+i)^{78/52}}$$

or:

$$(1+i)^{1,5} = 1,2$$

$$1+i = 1,129243$$

$$i = 0,129243$$

This amount will be rounded to 12,9% (or 12,92% if an accuracy of two decimal places is preferred).

Second example

The sum loaned is $S = \text{ECU } 1,000$, but the creditor retains ECU 50 for administrative expenses, so that the loan is in fact ECU 950; the repayment of ECU 1,200, as in the first example, is again made 1.5 years after the date of the loan.

The equation becomes:

$$950 = \frac{1,200}{(1+i)^{547,5/365}} = \frac{1,200}{(1+i)^{547,875/365}} = \frac{1,200}{(1+i)^{18/12}} = \frac{1,200}{(1+i)^{78/52}}$$

or:

$$(1+i)^{1,5} = 1200/950 = 1,263157$$

$$1+i = 1,168526$$

$$i = 0,168526$$

This amount will be rounded to 16.9% (or 16.85% if an accuracy of two decimal places is preferred).

Third example

The sum loaned is ECU 1,000, repayable in two amounts, each of ECU 600, paid after one and two years respectively.

The equation becomes

$$\begin{aligned} 1000 &= \frac{600}{(1+i)^{365/365}} + \frac{600}{(1+i)^{730/365}} = \frac{600}{(1+i)^{365,25/365,25}} + \frac{600}{(1+i)^{730,5/365,52}} \\ &= \frac{600}{(1+i)^{12/12}} + \frac{600}{(1+i)^{24/12}} = \frac{600}{(1+i)^{52/52}} + \frac{600}{(1+i)^{104/52}} \\ &= \frac{600}{(1+i)^1} + \frac{600}{(1+i)^2} \end{aligned}$$

It is solved by algebra and produces $i = 0,13066$ which will be rounded to 13,1% (or 13,07% if an accuracy of two decimal places is preferred).

Fourth example

The sum loaned is $S = \text{ECU } 1,000$ and the amounts to be paid by the borrower are:

After 3 months (0,25 years/13 Weeks/91,25 days/91,3125 days):	ECU 272
After 6 months (0,5 years/26 Weeks/182,5 days/182,625 days):	ECU 272
After 12 months (1 year/52 weeks/365 days/365,25 days):	ECU 544
Total:	ECU 1,088

The equation becomes:

$$\begin{aligned}
 &= \frac{1000}{(1+i)^{91,25/365}} + \frac{272}{(1+i)^{182,5/365}} + \frac{544}{(1+i)^{365/365}} \\
 &= \frac{272}{(1+i)^{91,3125/365,25}} + \frac{272}{(1+i)^{182,625/365,25}} + \frac{544}{(1+i)^{365,25/365,25}} \\
 &= \frac{272}{(1+i)^{3/12}} + \frac{272}{(1+i)^{6/12}} + \frac{544}{(1+i)^{12/12}} \\
 &= \frac{272}{(1+i)^{13/52}} + \frac{272}{(1+i)^{26/52}} + \frac{544}{(1+i)^{52/52}} \\
 &= \frac{272}{(1+i)^{0,25}} + \frac{272}{(1+i)^{0,5}} + \frac{544}{(1+i)^1}
 \end{aligned}$$

This equation allows i to be calculated by successive approximations, which can be programmed on a pocket calculator. The result is $i = 0,13185$ which will be rounded to 13,2% (or 13,19% if an accuracy of two decimal places is preferred).]

2. The hirer must then either—

(a) (i) pay any instalments which are in arrear at the time when he gives notice, and

(ii) if, when the hirer has paid those instalments, the total amount F221[which he has paid] under the agreement is less than (here insert the minimum amount the hirer is required to pay under section 63 (2) (a)) the hirer must also pay enough to make up that sum, or

F222[(b) purchase the goods by paying the difference between the amount already paid under this agreement and either the hire-purchase price reduced in accordance with section 52 or 53 of the Consumer Credit Act, 1995, or such lesser amount if specified in this agreement.]

3. Where a hirer has not purchased the goods and the goods have been damaged owing to the hirer having failed to take reasonable care of them, the owner may sue the hirer for the amount of the damage unless that amount can be agreed between the hirer and the owner.

4. The hirer should see whether this agreement contains provisions allowing the hirer to put an end to this agreement on terms more favourable to him than those just mentioned. If it does he may put an end to the agreement on those terms.

Restriction of owner's right to recover goods

1. Without the hirer's consent the owner has no authority to enter the hirer's premises for the purpose of taking back the goods (other than a motor vehicle in the circumstances mentioned in paragraph 2 below).

2. The owner of a motor vehicle is entitled to enforce any right which he may have under this agreement to enter any land of the hirer other than his home or any buildings attached thereto.

3. After (here insert the amount calculated in accordance with section 64) has been paid, then, unless the hirer has put an end to the agreement without exercising the option to purchase the goods, the owner of the goods cannot take them back from the hirer without the hirer's consent unless the owner has obtained a court order or is taking a motor vehicle back in accordance with paragraph 4 below.

4. Where the owner has made an application to the court for an order to recover possession of the motor vehicle, he may, if the vehicle has been abandoned or has been left unattended in circumstances likely to result in damage to, or more than normal depreciation in the value of the vehicle, and if the agreement so provides, take back the vehicle and retain possession of it during the ensuing period prior to the making by the court of an order for the purpose of protecting the vehicle from damage or depreciation.

(1) Pledges, other than those made up wholly or partly of gold, silver or other precious metal or of any precious or semi-precious stone must be redeemed within 6 months and 7 days from the date of pawning but, if the interest is paid at any time within the above period, the redemption period will be extended for a further period of 6 months and 7 days from the date up to which the interest is paid. Pledges made up wholly or partly of gold, silver or other precious metal or of any precious or semi-precious stone must be redeemed within one year and 7 days from the date of pledging. However, the period for redemption of any pledge in respect of which a special contract is made under section 15 (as amended by the Consumer Credit Act, 1995) of the Pawnbrokers Act, 1964, shall be 4 months or such longer period as may be specified in the special contract pawn ticket.

(2) At the end of the redemption period pledges may be sold by the pawnbroker by sale by public auction in the manner provided by law and not otherwise. A pledge may, however, be redeemed at any time before the day of sale.

Surplus on Sale of Pledge

6. Within 12 months after the sale by public auction of a pledge, the pawner may inspect the account of the sale in the pawnbroker's book and in the auctioneer's catalogue, on payment of a fee of 25 pence and receive any surplus produced by the sale. But a deficit on the sale of one pledge may, in certain circumstances, be set off against a surplus on another.

Damage to Pledge

7. (1) If a pledge is destroyed or damaged by fire, the pawnbroker, if the pawn-ticket is tendered to him before the expiry of the period within which the pledge would have been redeemable, will be bound to pay an amount equal to one-half of the amount of the loan.

(2) If a pledge, through default, neglect or wilful misbehaviour on the part of the pawnbroker, is lost, destroyed or is of less value at the time of redemption than it was at the time of pawning, the owner may apply to the District Court for compensation and the Court may, if it thinks fit, award compensation in respect of the damage, and the amount so awarded shall be deducted from the sum payable to the pawnbroker, or as the case may require, shall be paid by the pawnbroker in such manner as the Court may direct.

Pawnbrokers Act, 1964

Loss of Pawn Ticket

8. If a pawn ticket is lost, mislaid or stolen, the pawner should at once apply to the pawnbroker for a form of declaration to be made before a Notary Public, a Commissioner for Oaths or a Peace Commissioner; otherwise the pawnbroker will be bound to deliver the pledge to any person who produces the pawn ticket to him and claims to redeem the pledge.
