Modifications (not altering text):

- C1 Prospective affecting provision: application of Act subject to transitional provisions in Agriculture Appeals (Amendment) Act 2024 (38/2024), s. 15, not commenced as of date of revision.

Transitional provisions

15.—(1) The Act of 2001 shall have effect as amended by this Part on and after the commencement date in respect of a pre-commencement decision if immediately before the commencement date—

- (a) no request has been made for revision of the decision by an appeals officer under section 10(1) of the Act of 2001 or by the Director under section 10(2) of that Act,
- (b) a request for revision of the decision by an appeals officer under section 10(1) of the Act of 2001 has been made but not determined, or
- (c) a request for revision of the decision by the Director under section 10(2) of the Act of 2001 has been made but not determined (in which case the Director shall make administrative arrangements to transfer the request to the Review Panel for consideration under section 10A of that Act).

(2) The period allowed by section 10(1A) or subsection (1), be taken to be the period of 12 months beginning with the commencement date. 10A(2)(b) of the Act of 2001 for requesting a revision shall, in the application of those provisions by virtue of

(3) In relation to any pre-commencement decision to which subsection (1) does not apply, the Act of 2001 shall continue to have effect as if this Part had not come into operation.

(4) In this section—

“commencement date” means the date on which section 9 comes into operation;

“pre-commencement decision” means a decision made before the commencement date by an appeals officer under section 7(4) or 10(1) of the Act of 2001.

F23[Conduct of appeal

14B.—(1) A person (in this section referred to as an “appellant”) shall, when making an appeal under section 14A(4) (in this section, and sections 14C, 14D, 14E and 14F referred to as an “appeal”) and during the conduct of the appeal, comply with the requirements of this section, any regulations made under sections 7(2), 14E, 14F and 15, any rules made under subsection (2) and section 14C(2), and any direction issued under subsection (3), and where a person does not so comply, the appeal shall be invalid and shall not be considered by the Forestry Appeals Committee.

(2) The Forestry Appeals Committee may make such rules in relation to the conduct of appeals as it considers appropriate and shall publish those rules on a website maintained by or on behalf of the Committee.

(3) The Forestry Appeals Committee may, for the purpose of ensuring the efficient, fair and timely determination of an appeal, issue a direction in respect of the conduct of the appeal.

(4) An appellant shall, when making an appeal, state all of the grounds upon which the appeal is made and provide to the Forestry Appeals Committee all of the documents and evidence upon which he or she intends to rely to support those grounds.

(5) A party to an appeal other than the appellant shall, when responding to an appeal, state all of the grounds upon which he or she responds to the appeal and provide to the Forestry Appeals Committee all of the documents and evidence upon which he or she intends to rely to support those grounds.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), a party to an appeal shall not be entitled, during the course of an appeal, to make submissions to the Forestry Appeals Committee other than submissions related to the grounds stated, or documents and evidence provided under subsection (4) or (5).

(7) The Forestry Appeals Committee may, where it considers it necessary or expedient for the fair and proper determination of an appeal, require or permit a party to an appeal to—

- (a) make submissions to the Committee other than submissions related to the grounds stated or documents and evidence provided under subsection (4) or (5), or
- (b) provide documents or evidence to the Committee other than documents or evidence provided under subsection (4) or (5).

(8) The Forestry Appeals Committee may refuse to consider submissions, documents or evidence where—

- (a) the submissions, documents or evidence are not relevant to the appeal, or
- (b) it is considered appropriate so as to avoid undue repetition of submissions.

(9) The Forestry Appeals Committee may require any person to provide any information which it may reasonably require for the purposes of considering the appeal.

(10) (a) The Forestry Appeals Committee may, where it considers it necessary or expedient in determining an appeal, carry out a screening for an environmental impact assessment, an environmental impact assessment, a screening for an appropriate assessment, or an appropriate assessment.

(b) In this subsection—

“screening for an environmental impact assessment” means a determination—

- (i) as to whether the proposed activity to which the decision being appealed refers would be likely to have significant effects on the environment, and
- (ii) if the proposed activity would be likely to have such effects, that an environmental impact assessment is required;

“environmental impact assessment” has the meaning given to it by the Forestry Act 2014;

“screening for an appropriate assessment” means an assessment under Part 5 of the European Communities (Birds and Natural Habitats) Regulations 2011 (S.I. No. 477 of 2011);

“appropriate assessment” has the meaning given to it by the European Communities (Birds and Natural Habitats) Regulations 2011.

(11) The Forestry Appeals Committee may dismiss an appeal which is vexatious.

(12) In considering an appeal, the Forestry Appeals Committee—

- (a) shall have regard to the record of the decision the subject of the appeal, and
- (b) may, where it considers it necessary or expedient for the fair and proper determination of the appeal, have regard to such submissions, documents or evidence not contained in the record of the decision as the Committee considers appropriate.

(13) Following consideration of an appeal, the Forestry Appeals Committee may—

- (a) affirm the decision,
- (b) where it is satisfied that a serious or significant error or a series of errors was made in making the decision the subject of the appeal or that the decision was made without complying with fair procedure—
 - (i) vary the decision,
 - (ii) allow the appeal and set aside the decision,
 - (iii) set aside the decision and remit it, for stated reasons, to the Minister, or
 - (iv) where the Committee considers it appropriate to do so, by reference to submissions, documents or evidence before it which were not considered by the Minister or for other good reason, substitute its decision for the decision of the Minister.

(14) The Forestry Appeals Committee shall give notice of its determination under subsection (13) to the Minister, the appellant and such other parties as the Committee may determine, as soon as practicable after it is made.]

F24[Oral hearing 14C.—(1) The Forestry Appeals Committee shall determine an appeal without an oral hearing unless, having regard to the particular circumstances of the appeal, it considers that it is necessary to conduct an oral hearing in order to properly and fairly determine the appeal.

(2) The Forestry Appeals Committee may make such rules in relation to the conduct of oral hearings as it considers appropriate and shall publish those rules on a website maintained by or on behalf of the Committee.

(3) The chairperson or a deputy chairperson of the Forestry Appeals Committee shall have discretion as to the conduct of an oral hearing under this section and shall conduct the hearing expeditiously and without undue formality.

(4) The Forestry Appeals Committee may, by notice in writing, require a person to attend an oral hearing, at such time and place as is specified in the notice, to give evidence in respect of any matter in issue in an appeal or to produce any relevant documents within his or her possession or control, or within his or her procurement.

(5) The Forestry Appeals Committee may, for the purposes of an oral hearing, take evidence on oath or on affirmation and may for that purpose cause a person to swear an oath or make an affirmation.

(6) A person required to attend under subsection (4) may be examined and cross-examined at the oral hearing.

(7) The Forestry Appeals Committee may consider and determine an appeal notwithstanding the failure of a person to attend an oral hearing to give evidence or be examined in relation to the appeal.

(8) The chairperson or a deputy chairperson of the Forestry Appeals Committee may limit the time within which each party to an appeal may make submissions at an oral hearing.]

F32[Part 1

GOVERNANCE

Composition

1. The Review Panel shall consist of the following members—
 - (a) a chairperson,
 - (b) at least 5 ordinary members, and
 - (c) the Director, or the Deputy Director if designated by the Director.

Appointment

2. (1) The chairperson and ordinary members shall be appointed by the Minister.
- (2) The Minister—
 - (a) shall appoint only persons who, in the Minister's opinion, have experience relevant to the functions of the Review Panel, and
 - (b) shall include, among the persons appointed under clause (a), at least 2 persons with practical knowledge or experience of farming.
- (3) The Minister shall aim, subject to subparagraph (2)(a), to ensure an equitable balance between men and women in the composition of the Review Panel.
- (4) The following persons shall not be eligible for appointment to the Review Panel:
 - (a) an officer of the Minister;
 - (b) a member of either House of the Oireachtas;
 - (c) a person entitled under the rules of procedure of the European Parliament to sit in that Parliament;
 - (d) a member of a local authority (within the meaning of the Local Government Act 2001).

Deputy chairpersons

3. The Minister may designate one or more ordinary members to perform the functions of a deputy chairperson of the Review Panel.

Tenure

4. The chairperson shall hold office for the period of 3 years beginning with the date of appointment.
5. An ordinary member shall hold office for the period of 3 years beginning with the date of appointment.

6. (1) The chairperson or an ordinary member whose term of office expires is eligible for reappointment.

(2) A person who is reappointed to the Review Panel in accordance with subparagraph (1) shall not hold office for periods the aggregate of which exceeds 6 years.

Resignation

7. (1) The chairperson or an ordinary member may resign from office by giving at least 30 days notice in writing to the Minister.

(2) The period referred to in subparagraph (1) begins with the date on which the Minister receives the notice.

(3) Notwithstanding subparagraph (1), the chairperson or an ordinary member who becomes incapable of performing the functions of office, through ill-health or otherwise, may resign with immediate effect from the date on which the Minister receives the notice.

Dismissal from office or cessation of term of office

8. (1) The Minister may remove the chairperson or an ordinary member from office if the Minister is of the opinion that—

- (a) the chairperson or member has become incapable, through ill health or otherwise, of effectively performing the functions of office,
- (b) the chairperson or member has committed stated misbehaviour,
- (c) it is necessary to remove the chairperson or member to enable the Review Panel to perform its functions effectively,
- (d) the chairperson or member has a conflict of interest of such significance that he or she should cease to hold office, or
- (e) the chairperson or member is otherwise unfit to hold the office or unable to discharge his or her functions.

(2) The chairperson or an ordinary member shall be disqualified from holding and shall cease to hold office as chairperson or ordinary member if he or she—

- (a) subject to subparagraph (3), is adjudicated bankrupt,
- (b) makes a composition or arrangement with creditors,
- (c) is sentenced by a court of competent jurisdiction to a term of imprisonment,
- (d) is convicted of any indictable offence in relation to a company, or any other body corporate, or is convicted outside the State of an offence consisting of acts or omissions which would constitute an offence triable on indictment if done or made in the State,
- (e) is convicted of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty, whether in connection with a company or not,
- (f) has a declaration under section 819 of the Companies Act 2014 made against him or her or is deemed to be subject to such a declaration by virtue of Chapter 5 of Part 14 of that Act, or
- (g) is subject or is deemed to be subject to a disqualification order, within the meaning of Chapter 4 of Part 14 of the Companies Act 2014, whether by virtue of that Chapter or any other provision of that Act, or a disqualification outside the State which corresponds to such a disqualification order.

(3) A person shall be disqualified from holding office as chairperson or ordinary member under subparagraph (2)(a) only for so long as he or she has not obtained a certificate of discharge from the bankruptcy.

(4) Where the Minister proposes to remove a person from office as chairperson or ordinary member under subparagraph (1), the Minister shall, by notice in writing, inform the person of his or her proposal.

(5) A notice under subparagraph (4) shall include a statement—

(a) of the reasons for the proposed removal,

(b) that the person concerned may make representations to the Minister, in such form and manner as may be specified by the Minister, as to why he or she should not be removed from office and such representations shall be made before the expiration of—

(i) a period of 30 working days from the date of the notification, or

(ii) such other longer period as the Minister may, having regard to the requirements of natural justice, specify in the notice,

and

(c) that where no representations are received within the period referred to in clause (b)(i) or (ii), as the case may be, the Minister may, without further notice to the person concerned, remove the person from office as chairperson or ordinary member.

(6) In considering whether to remove a person from office as chairperson or ordinary member under subparagraph (1), the Minister shall take into account—

(a) any representations made by the person concerned under clause (b) of subparagraph (5) within the period referred to in subclause (i) or (ii), as the case may be, of that clause, and

(b) any other matter the Minister considers relevant for the purpose of his or her decision.

(7) Where, having taken into account the matters referred to in subparagraph (6), the Minister decides not to remove the person from office as chairperson or ordinary member, the Minister shall cause notice to be given in writing to the person of the decision.

(8) Where, having taken into account the matters referred to in subparagraph (6), the Minister decides that the person should be removed from office as chairperson or ordinary member, the Minister shall, by notice in writing to the person, inform him or her of— (a) the decision and the reasons for that decision, and (b) the date on which the decision takes effect.

9. Where the chairperson or an ordinary member is—

(a) nominated as a member of Seanad Éireann,

(b) elected as a member of either House of the Oireachtas or to be a member of the European Parliament,

(c) regarded pursuant to Part XIII of the Second Schedule to the European Parliament Elections Act 1997 as having been elected to be a member of the European Parliament, or

(d) elected or co-opted as a member of a local authority (within the meaning of the Local Government Act 2001), he or she shall thereupon cease to be the chairperson or ordinary member, as the case may be.

Casual vacancies

10. (1) This paragraph applies where the chairperson or an ordinary member dies, resigns, ceases to be qualified for office or is removed from office.

(2) The Minister may appoint a person to be the chairperson or an ordinary member to fill the vacancy in the same manner as the chairperson or member who occasioned the vacancy was appointed.

(3) Subject to paragraphs 6, 7, 8 and 9, a person appointed under this paragraph shall hold office for the remainder of the term of office of the chairperson or member giving rise to the vacancy.

Terms and conditions of office

11. The chairperson and an ordinary member shall hold office upon such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Minister, with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure, National Development Plan Delivery and Reform (subject to the provisions of this Act).

Remuneration and Allowances

12. The Minister may, with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure, National Development Plan Delivery and Reform, pay to the chairperson and ordinary members such remuneration as the Minister may determine.

13. The Minister may, with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure, National Development Plan Delivery and Reform, pay to the chairperson and ordinary members such allowances in respect of expenses (if any) incurred by them as the Minister may determine.

Part 2

PROCEEDINGS

Meetings

14. (1) The Review Panel shall hold any meetings necessary for the performance of its functions.

(2) Meetings may be held in person or remotely by electronic means (or partly in person and partly remotely).

(3) The chairperson shall fix the date, time and place (or method) of meetings of the Review Panel.

(4) The quorum for meetings of the Review Panel shall be—

- (a) the chairperson or a deputy chairperson,
- (b) at least one other ordinary member, and
- (c) the Director or Deputy Director.

(5) If a meeting includes the chairperson and one or more than one deputy chairperson, any deputy chairperson who sits is to be treated as an ordinary member for the purposes of subparagraph (4)(b).

Decisions

15. (1) Decisions of the Review Panel shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present.

(2) In the case of an equal division of votes, the chairperson shall have a second or casting vote.

16. The Review Panel shall send written notice of each decision and the reasons for it to—

- (a) the parties to the appeal,
- (b) the Director, and
- (c) the appeals officer who made the decision which was the subject of a review by the Review Panel.

Divisions

17. (1) The Review Panel may sit in divisions.

(2) A deputy chairperson may chair a division.

(3) A division of the Review Panel shall consist of—

- (a) the chairperson or a deputy chairperson,
- (b) at least one other ordinary member, and
- (c) the Director or Deputy Director.

(4) If a division includes the chairperson and one or more than one deputy chairperson, any deputy chairperson who sits is to be treated as an ordinary member for the purposes of subparagraph (3)(b).

Correspondence with parties

18. The Review Panel may communicate with the parties in whatever manner it thinks appropriate.

19. The Review Panel may require—

- (a) a party, and
- (b) the appeals officer who made the decision which is the subject of the review, to provide it with any information it thinks necessary.

Independence

20. The Review Panel shall be independent in the performance of its functions. Conflicts of interest

21. (1) In performing their functions, the chairperson and ordinary members shall take all reasonable steps to avoid any actual or perceived conflict of interest whether in relation to a decision referred to the Review Panel or otherwise.

(2) Where the chairperson or ordinary member believes that performing any of his or her functions as the chairperson or ordinary member would—

- (a) potentially create a conflict of interest, the chairperson or ordinary member shall recuse himself or herself from the functions or review in question and shall notify the Minister of the recusal, or
- (b) give rise to the perception of any potential conflict of interest, the chairperson or ordinary member shall disclose that fact to the Minister in respect of the review with which the chairperson or ordinary member is dealing, and shall, having regard to any submissions received from the Minister, consider whether it is necessary to recuse himself or herself from the review in question.]
